

EASY TO MIX

This Simple Recipe for Didney or Bladder Trouble or Rheumatism

What will appear very interesting to many people here is the article taken from a New York daily paper, giving a simple prescription which is said to be a positive remedy for backache or kidney or bladder derangement, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease.

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

A well known druggist here at home, when asked regarding this prescription, stated that the ingredients are all harmless, and can be obtained at a small cost from and good prescription pharmacy. The prescription would be put up if asked to do so. He further stated that while this prescription is often prescribed for rheumatic affections, he could not see why it would not be a splendid remedy for kidney and urinary troubles and backache, as he has a peculiar action upon the kidney structure, cleansing these most important organs and helping them to sift and filter from the blood the foul acids and waste matter which cause sickness and suffering. Those of our readers who suffer can make no mistake in giving it a trial.

Horse Sense Reminders.

Don't leave me hitched in my stall at night with a big cob where I must lie down. I am tired and can't select a smooth place.

Don't compel me to eat more salt than I want by mixing it with my oats. I know better than any other animal how much I need.

Don't think because I go free under the whip I don't get tired. You would move up if under the whip.

Don't think because I am a horse that weeds and briars won't hurt my hay.

Don't whip me when I get freighted along the road or I will expect it next time and maybe make trouble.

Don't trot me up hill for I have to carry you and the buggy and myself. Try it yourself some time. Run up hill with a load.

Don't keep the stable very dark for when I go out in the light my eyes are injured.

Don't say whoa unless you mean it.

Teach me to stop at the word. It may check me if the lines break and save a runaway and save a smash up.

Don't forget to file my teeth when they become jagged and I cannot chew my food.

When I get lean it may be a sign that my teeth need filing.

Don't ask me to back with blinds on. I am afraid to.

Don't run me down a steep hill for if anything should give way I might break your neck.

Don't pull on my blind bridle so that it irritates my eyes, or so leave my forelock that it will be in my eyes.

Don't be so careless of my harness as to find a great sore on me before you attend to it.

Don't forget the old book that is a friend to all oppressed, that says, "A merciful man is merciful to his beast"—Farm Journal.

THE ROAD TO SUCCESS.

Has many obstructions, but none so desperate as poor health. Success today demands health, but Electric Bitters is the greatest health builder the world has ever known. It compels perfect action of the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, purifies and enriches the blood, and tones and invigorates the whole system. Vigorous body and keen brain follow their use. You can't afford to slight Electric Bitters if weak, run-down or sickly. Only 50c. Guaranteed by A. M. Hughes, Louisville, Ky.

Death of Mrs. Ruggles.

The wife of Robert Ruggles, Sr., died at her home on the left hand fork of Bear Creek on last Saturday morning and was buried Sunday.

Her death came very sudden. She was as well as usual at supper time, but later complained of a shortness of breath and smothering. All efforts were used to try to relieve her, but she died in a short time.

Mrs. Ruggles was a daughter of Squire Stewart, and was near eighty years old. She was an excellent woman and will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Vendetta.

Jackson, Ky., March 5.—"Yaller, Cat" Jeff Davis and Cal Miller are on trial in the Breathitt Circuit Court for the murder of Drew Bush, who was shot while sitting in his home just above town last Christmas, the assassin firing through a crack in the door. The last witness introduced by the Commonwealth was Dr. C. H. Hurst, who identified the bullet taken from the body of Bush. This ball was the same caliber as the pistol owned by Davis, as established by another witness for the Commonwealth.

The case will probably be completed by noon to-morrow and will be the fourth murder case tried at the present term of the court, five others having been already continued until the next term and seven yet remaining to be tried.
